THE GAZETTE.

MONDAY MORNING, MAY 20, 1861. COMMUNICATED.

STATE RIGHTS .- In vindication of that principle of the Chicago Platform "that governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed," Senator Sumner has said, "I plant it firmly on the fundamental principle of American institutions, as embodied in the Declaration of Independence, by which government is recognized as deriving its just powers from the consent of the governed, who may alter or abolish it when it becomes destructive of their rights," To deny such principle, he remarked, is to Cucumber, Egg Plant, Endive, Kale, Leck, Letadopt the circular of the holy alliance, tuce, Melon, Mushroom Spawa, Nasturtium, which declares that useful and necessary Onion, Parsley, Parsnip, Peas, Pepper, Pumpkin, changes in legislation and in the administra- Radish, Rhubarb, Salsafy, Spinach, Squash, Tomtion of States, ought only to emenate from the free will and the intelligent and wellweighed conviction of those whom God has rendered responsible for power. Face to face, I put the principle of the Declaration of Independence, and the principle of the holy alliance, and bid them grapple! The one places the remedy in the hands which feel the disorder; the other places the remedy in the bands which cause the disorder, and when I thus truthfully characterize them, I but adopt a sententious phrase from the debates in the Virginia Convention on the adoption of the Federal Constitution." In this connexion he quoted Mr. Madison, who says: "That in all great changes of established government, forms ought to give way to substance, that a rigid adherence in such cases to the forms would render nominal and nugatory the transcendent and precious rights of the people to alter or abolish their government, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness." * * * "No real for adhering to ordinary forms, was any where seen-except in those who wished to indulge under these masks their secret enmity to the substance contended for ?" Again, Mr. S. mner says : "If, forgetting the origin of the republic, you turn away from this principle, then, in the name of human nature, trampled down and oppressed, but aroused to a just self-detence, do I plead for the exercise of the power." The pertinency of the foregoing remarks to the present position of the South,is too self-evident to need comment.

TO THE PUBLIC. MASHION in dress is the pictorial history of the times, while it is the outward reflection, or rather halo, of internal refinement, and, therefere, in order to gratify appreciative intellectuality, the undersigned has, with greateare, purchased a superior assortment of CLCTHS, CASSIMERES, and VESTINGS, embracing the newest styles and most elegant patterns the European market affords, which will be made up to order in artistic mode, defying superiority in cut and workmanship. In the FURNISHING LINE, Cashmere and India have poured out their offerings of Wool and Silk, the industry and intelligence of our own great country has competed in many instances successfully, in producing SHIRTS, (under and upper,) DRAWERS, GLOVES, SUSPEN-BERS, HALF HOSE, HANDKERCHIEFS, NECK TIES, Stocks, with many other articles usual in a gentleman's toilet. Also, a good assortment of REA-DY MADE COATS, PANTS, and VESTS, cut and made like erdered work, very far superior to what is generally sold in that way. But a small profit is asked, and orders filled with punctuality.
